It is with the greateſt Pleaſure we look back on your Majeſty's ſteady Conduct through every Period of the late War, a War begun with Juſtice, carried on by your Majeſty with Vigour, and ended with Honour and Advantage to theſe Kingdoms. common Unanimity and Diſpatch by your Majeſty's Wiſdom and unwearied Application.

Truly ſenſible of theſe great Advantages, we make it our ardent Wiſh, that your Majeſty may long live to enjoy the Hearts and Affections of your People, thoſe natural Conſequences of a Reign ſignalized by your conſtant Regard and Endeavour for their Happineſs and Proſperity.

Your Majeſty's tender and paternal Regard for the Rights and Intereſts of your Subjects, and your religious Obſervation of the Faith of Treaties, was not more viſible in your Majeſty's entering into the juſt and neceſſary War, in which you have been engaged, than in your conſtant and unwearied Endeavours to procure a ſafe and honourable Peace for us and our Allies: And as we are bound in Gratitude to return your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and hearty Thanks for the many Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your mild and auſpicious Reign, ſo in a particular Manner we are engaged to render your Majeſty our moſt grateful Acknowledgments, for bringing about this great and important Event, where ſo many jarring Intereſts were concerned.

Truly ſenſible of this invaluable Bleſſing, we ſhall make it our Study ſo to cultivate the Arts of Peace, that it may redound no leſs to the Honour and Security of your Majeſty, than to the Improvement of the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom. And to this End we ſhall ever pray, that your Majeſty may continue long to reign over us; that your Peace and Tranquility may never more be diſturbed, either by Foreign Wars or Domeſtick Inſurrections. Given under our Common Seal this 31ſt Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1748.

In the Courſe of this War, the Conduct and Behaviour of your Majeſty's Forces, both by Sea and Land, have gained eternal Honour to your Majeſty and theſe Kingdoms, and merit the higheſt Regard from all their Fellow Subjects.

Juſt and expedient as the War was, we, (in common with the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects) have felt the heavy, but neceſſary and unavoidable Burthens thereof, and cannot but admire your Majeſty's Goodneſs and Tenderneſs for your People, in putting ſo ſeaſonable an End to it, as well as your great Wiſdom, in being able, in ſo ſhort a Time, to reconcile ſo many different Intereſts, and to procure a Peace to the Satisfaction, and with the Concurrence of all your Majeſty's Allies.

That your Majeſty may long enjoy the Fruits and Bleſſings of this Peace, and that your Royal Family may always reign over a dutiful, loyal, and free People, and that all your Majeſty's Subjects may remember, and make a grateful Return for the Bleſſings they enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, will be our ſincere and conſtant Prayer.

We bleſs Almighty God for the Preſervation of ſo precious a Life, dear to all the Lovers of Liberty in Europe, in the higheſt Manner, dear to us, who have long felt the Bleſſings of your auſpicious Reign.

Your wiſe Conduct, your paternal Care, ever vigilant at Home and Abroad for the Happineſs of your People, have, after bringing about great and important Events by War, reſtored a general Peace, that ſecures the Rights of your Subjects, and opens a free Commerce, the Fruits of which we hope will ſoon repair the Expence of foreign War and civil Commotions.

So gracious a Reign, ſo wiſe an Adminiſtration, cannot but unite the Hearts of all who value Religion, Liberty and Property, in the warmeſt Affection to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government.

Permit us, Great Sir, to expreſs our unfeigned Loyalty to the beſt of Kings, and our ſteady Reſolution to ſpread the ſame Zeal wherever our Influence can reach.
